

Faculty	Faculty of Engineering and Applied Technologies
Department	Horticulture
The position in the state of functions	10/II
Function	Associate Professor PhD.
The subjects in the education plan	Ecological Restoration; Landscape Architecture; Drawing and Graphic Representations; Ecology and Environmental Protection.
Scientific field	Horticulture
Job description	The position of Associate Professor, on a permanent basis, vacant, position 10/II, as provided in the staffing plan and approved teaching staff for the 2024-2025 academic year, includes a workload of 14.00 conventional hours per year, covered by lectures and practical work, with the following distribution across disciplines: - Ecological Restoration, Master's, Year 1, Semester I, 1 group, 1 lecture hour and 1 practical work hour per week; - Landscape architecture, Bachelor's, Year 3, Semester I, 1 group, 1 lecture hour and 1 practical work hour per week; - Drawing and graphic representations, Bachelor's, Year 1, Semester I, 2 groups, 2 lecture hours and 1 practical work hour per week; - Drawing and graphic representations, Bachelor's, Year 1, Semester II, 2 groups, 2 lecture hours and 2 practical work hour per week; - Ecology and environmental protection, Bachelor's, Year 2, Semester I, 1 group, 1 lecture hour and 1 practical hour per week; - Ecology and environmental protection, Bachelor's, Year 2, Semester I, 1 group, 2 lecture hours per week.