

Faculty of Veterinary Medicine Timișoara
Department IV - Animal Production and Veterinary Public Health

Position Details

Faculty	Veterinary Medicine
Department	IV - Animal Production and Veterinary Public Health
Position in the Staffing Plan	4 / IV
Academic position	Professor, Indefinite-term contract
Subjects in the Study Plan	Animal husbandry (MVE), Animal productions (MVE), Élevage (MVF), Production animale (MVF), Techniques d'élevage des animaux monogastriques (MVF).
Scientific Domain	Biological and Biomedical Sciences, Veterinary Medicine
Associated Duties/Activities	Teaching the Animal Husbandry 1 course in the English section. Teaching the Élevage course in the French section. Teaching the Production Animale course in the French section. Teaching the Techniques d'élevage des animaux monogastriques course in the French section. Preparing courses to modern standards, including PowerPoint presentations and up-to-date information in the field. Conducting practical work sessions with second and third-year students from the Faculty of Veterinary Medicine, both English and French sections, as well as providing the necessary teaching materials to ensure the effective delivery of practical classes. Preparing teaching activities in accordance with the methodological and psycho-pedagogical standards specific to higher education. Conducting research and documentation to support both teaching and scientific research activities in the field of Animal Husbandry. Assessing student progress through the evaluation of tests and written assignments. Administering examinations for second and third-year students. Supervising undergraduate theses. Conducting scientific research activities related to the field of the position. Participating in scientific sessions, symposia, and other academic community events. Providing student guidance and academic tutoring. Offering consultancy on matters specific to the taught disciplines. Participating in civic, cultural, administrative, and evaluation activities initiated by the faculty.